

BILLING AGREEMENT & POLICIES

Athletic Edge bills their training clients on a pre-pay basis, and renewals are collected on the final session of the current pre-paid block. If clients carry a negative balance on their account, they cannot be trained.

All trainers work on a scheduled appointment basis. In order for them to effectively use their time, we ask that clients give them 24-hour notice if canceling an appointment. Training sessions canceled inside of 24 hours of the scheduled appointment time will be billed at the normal rate of a single session to the client or clients (in the case of a semi-private session). Last-minute cancellations have necessitated us to charge pay-as-you-go clients for two sessions the first time they train. That extra session stays on account in the event that it needed as described above.

When clients desire on-going set appointment times, they have to maintain at least a 2/3 attendance rate for the month, or else their time slot will have to be surrendered. Absences of more than one month will also necessitate relinquishing a set time slot.

It is the policy of Athletic Edge to provide refunds only under the following circumstances:

- 1 We are unable to meet the realistic scheduling needs of a client. Realistic scheduling means during regular hours of operation Monday through Saturday, or if specially scheduled for Sunday.
- 2 A client's medical condition exists that makes it impossible to work with a trainer. In this case, a physician's written notification is required.

All remaining training sessions following a 45-day inactive period will be non-refundable. Unused sessions prior to that can be transferred to another Athletic Edge client.

I, _____, have read the aforementioned and understand and accept these policies as they relate to training procedures with Athletic Edge.
